

FAQ

What is the Delaware County Walk for Hunger?

This is the inaugural year for the Delaware County Walk for Hunger. A community wide event benefitting hunger and homelessness, the intent is to make it a community effort as well. Family friendly and senior friendly the walk will include a 5k fun run, a walk and alternative forms of transportation for those wishing to participate but unable to handle the distance. While coordinated by St. Alban's Church, this is a secular event that wishes to involve all people regardless of creed.

Who is the walk benefiting?

The walk is benefitting two local and one international charity. Specifically: The Community Action Agency of Delaware County (caadc.org), the Broomall Food Pantry and Oxfam (Oxfam.org)

Are there Sponsorship Opportunities?

Yes. Please contact our race coordinator or check out our website for more details.
